

Ouray Public Library
Book Talk and Slide Presentation

DEMIMONDE

(Lithic Press, 2016)

Presented by author Kierstin Bridger

Tuesday, June 7, 2016
7:00 p.m.

San Juan Room,
Ouray Community Center
320 6th Avenue
Ouray, CO

The reading will be accompanied by a presentation of historic photos from turn-of-the-century mining towns and will be followed by a discussion and book signing.

A percentage of the proceeds benefit the Ouray Public Library.

Libations served.

Kierstin Bridger divides her time between Ridgway and Telluride. She is a winner of the Mark Fischer Poetry Prize, the 2015 ACC Writer's Studio award and an Anne LaBastille Poetry residency. She is editor of Ridgway Alley Poems, co-director of Open Bard Poetry Series and contributing writer for Telluride Inside Out. Bridger has published her short fiction in Smith Magazine, Concise and Mountain Gazette and her poetry in December, Thrush Poetry Journal, Tulane Review, Fugue and several anthologies. Read more at www.kierstinbridger.com.

